Be inspired

You'll have lots of ideas of your own of course, but here are a few suggestions on how you can plan your wedding here at Purusha.

Friday evening welcome

Welcome your guests with sundowner drinks around the tea hut, in the stretch tent, or in the woods on the Sunset Dais with its undisturbed views of the Lincolnshire countryside.

Follow with supper in the Grub Hub or the stretch tent with close friends and family.

Enjoy fire-side hot chocolates and share stories before retiring to your eco-luxe domes in the woodlands and taking a relaxing hot tub under the stars.

Your wedding day

Take a morning yoga class with one of our expert tutors on the Sunset Dais to feel calm, relaxed and ready for the day ahead before tucking into a beautiful breakfast in the Grub Hub.

Dress in your domes before a pre-ceremony photoshoot with the woodlands as your beautiful backdrop.

Greet your guests by the lily-pad lake with pre-blessing drinks under the canopy of the stretch tent.

Wander to your blessing in the woods on the Sunset Dais platform or lead your party to the Kula Dome for your ceremony.

The celebration

Celebrate with festival-style street food vans outside in our beautiful grounds with trestle tables and sofas under the stretch tent.

Party the night away and dance until dawn before happily wandering back to your woodland domes to rest and relive all those happy moments.

Sunday goodbyes

Wake up slowly and have a picnic breakfast with your friends and family that stayed over.

Enjoy a refreshing walk around the farm resting in the Diamond wood to reflect on your amazing weekend of celebrations and connection.
